Dealing with Diabetes? Join a Support Group!

Joy-Southfield Health & Education Center, in collaboration with the Department of Medical Education at the University of Michigan Medical School, offers open enrollment in two diabetes support groups held on the first Thursday of each month. A morning session runs from 10AM to noon and an evening session from 6 to 8 PM. Both groups are led by an expert – Cheryl Tannas, MSN, RN, CDE. There is no cost for participating in the program. If you are interested in joining one of the groups, please provide your contact information below. Please return the completed application to the Health & Education Center, attention: Dave Law. Your contact information will be used solely for communicating about the support group. You will be eligible to begin attending the support group of your choice. Light refreshments provided.
